2. HOW WELL PREPARED IS YOUR TA IN THIS FIELD? 1 (not well) 2 3 4 (very well) N/A

It is important that TAs have a good command of the specific area in theatre that you are engaged in. This does not mean that the TA knows all there is about a subject, but that he/she can give you a clear idea of the activities you are engaged in and how they relate to your professional and personal development.

4. HOW WELL DOES YOUR TA GRADE WORK AND PROVIDE FEEDBACK TO STUDENTS? 1 2 3 4 N/A
not well very well

Grading, critiquing of student work, and providing feedback to students (in class, in office hours, and on assignments) is important to learning, development, and growth in this area. Such activities should be done in a manner that is fair, based on the goals and objectives of the activity, and leads to progress and growth. In the space provided, comment on how well your TA does this.
COMMENTS:

5. HOW WELL DOES YOUR TA STIMULATE YOUR INTEREST IN THE MATERIAL? 1 2 3 4 N/A
not well very well

By taking this class, it is hoped that you will have a greater interest in the material it covers and a greater appreciation of the tasks and challenges of this discipline. In the space provided, comment on how well your TA does this.
COMMENTS:

6. HOW WELL DOES YOUR TA PROMOTE AND ENCOURAGE YOUR CRITICAL THINKING? 1 2 3 4 N/A
not well very well

Although the content of a course is important, it is also important for you to learn how to think more critically about the arts and their relationship to society in general. This may involve making you aware of how to develop your own analytical and critiquing skills. Comment on the things your TA does that enhance your learning and conversely, note if there are things done in class that detract from your learning.
